

I can identify adults
that I trust.

Trust is a value

I do not take what isn't mine,

Trustworthy

When tempted

I walk on by.

I'm trustworthy,

I tell the truth,

Even when

I'd rather lie.

Which adults do you trust?

In the story of Little Red Riding Hood, she told the wolf where she was going.

Do you think Little Red Riding Hood should have trusted the wolf?

Why?

What is a stranger?

A stranger is someone we do not know.

Do you know all of these people?

Some strangers are 'safe strangers'.
Who would be a safe stranger?

Talk to your family at home and write a list of people you could trust (safe strangers) if you were lost on your own somewhere in Hook.

I can identify adults
that I trust.
